ORDER

AND NOW, this 29th day of July, 2011, upon consideration of plaintiff's motions for appointment of counsel (Docs. 66, 68), and assuming that plaintiff's claims brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983, have an arguable basis in law or fact, and it appearing from the record that he is capable of properly and forcefully prosecuting his claims with adequate factual investigation and appropriate citations to governing authority, that discovery neither implicates complex legal or factual issues nor requires factual investigation or the testimony of expert witnesses, see Tabron v.
